

LUCAS WINS AT WOODCOTE

David Dibben

READING ROADRUNNER Chris Lucas scored his first big win of the year when he took victory in the Woodcote 10k on Sunday.

Chris finally got the better of Great Britain squad triathlete Richard Kinnersley in the final kilometre of the seemingly never-ending climb up the Chilterns to win in 35mins 53secs.

He triumphed by 17 seconds, with former Roadrunner Ryan O'Brien a further 20 seconds back in third.

Second Roadrunner home, Chantal Perceval, was also the third lady to finish, in 43:15, and third in a green vest Jane Davies, who comfortably won the FV50 category as well as the age grading battle by a country mile.

A total of 26 Roadrunners competed despite the counter-attraction of TVXC. Results:
